You had a big assignment to make a poster for Teachers' Day. Of course, you just played all weekend and did nothing.

Great idea! You tell your teacher you are sick and go see Nurse Kate. Draw yourself looking so very sick in Nurse Kate's office.

You waited in the nurse's office for so long you started daydreaming. You dreamed that Nurse Kate gave you a special potion, and now you are the teacher. You don't have to worry about your missing assignment! Yeah!! But wait! Now you are a teacher? What do you have to do? Write down your plans for the day and what you will be doing as THE teacher in your class.

My ideas....
